Scope and Content Note

This part of the Klein Walker Collection focuses on topics integral to Dr. Walker's career, both at a national and regional level. Materials focus on infant mortality (IM) through her work with HHS Secretary's Advisory Committee on Infant Mortality (SACIM). Broad service to the MCH community is represented through internal and outreach materials from the Association of Maternal and Child Health Programs (AMCHP) and a decade of meeting notes from MCHB-supported meetings and conferences. Special foci on issues related to New England states as well as Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs (CYSHCN) are also represented.

Bibliographical/Historical Note

Deborah Klein Walker, EdD, is a public health researcher and leader with over 40 years of experience developing and implementing programs and system change, research, evaluation, policy analysis, and consulting on a broad range of public policy issues across the lifespan. She has served as Vice President and Senior Fellow at Abt Associates for over a decade after a long-running career at the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, where she was the Maternal and Child Health Title V Director, Acting Director for Substance Abuse Services, and Associate Commissioner for Programs and Prevention. As the Director of the Bureau of Family and Community Health for over a decade, Dr. Walker was responsible for all MCH Title V programs, including those for children and youth with special health care needs and special initiatives with Medicaid and other insurers related to enrollment, quality, benefits and building systems of care. Prior to state service, she was a faculty member at the Harvard School of Public Health and Harvard Graduate School of Education.

She is an Adjunct Professor of Community Health Sciences at Boston University School of Public Health and at Tufts University School of Medicine. She is also the Past President of the Global Alliance for Behavioral Health and Social Justice (formerly, the American Orthopsychiatric Association); a Board Member of Family Voices, the Institute for Community Health and the Cambridge Health Alliance Foundation and on the Editorial Board of the Maternal and Child Health Journal.

She is a former president of the American Public Health Association and the Association of Maternal and Child Health Programs; a founder of New England SERVE and the Research Consortium on Children with Chronic Conditions; a former Board Member of the Massachusetts Public Health Association and Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies; a former Trustee of the Cambridge Health Alliance and chair of its Cambridge Health Department subcommittee. She is currently on the Governing Council (representing the American Public Health Association) of the World Federation of Public Health Associations.

Dr. Walker has authored three books, over 100 peer reviewed journal articles and numerous commentaries for the Nation's Health, Huffington Post, and other news outlets. She has been widely honored by organizations representing MCH services, disabilities, and at-risk populations. She received the Paul Revere Award from the Massachusetts Public Health Association, the Martha May Eliot Award for Maternal and Child Health from the American Public Health Association, the Vince L. Hutchins Partnership Award from the Department of Health and Human Services' Maternal and Child Health Bureau, the Ziegler Founder's Award for Visionary Leadership for Individuals with Disabilities from the Federation for Children with Special Needs, and the National Leadership Award from the Coalition for Excellence in MCH Epidemiology. She has served on several Institute of Medicine panels, the HHS Secretary's Advisory Committee on Infant Mortality, and in various advisory capacities for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Dr. Walker earned a B.A. degree with great distinction and high honors in Psychology from Mount Holyoke College and an Ed.D. and Ed.M. degree in Human Development from Harvard University.

Dr. Walker is the author of over 100 peer reviewed articles, 3 books and numerous commentaries. She has been honored by organizations representing maternal and child health, disabilities and at-risk populations. She is active on twitter @DKWpublichealth.
